Job Opportunity & Examination Bulletins

(Multiple positions and locations available in California)

Updated: March 23, 2018

The California Department of Developmental Services (DDS) is the agency through which the State of California provides services and supports to individuals with developmental disabilities. Direct care services are provided through three state-operated developmental centers and one small community facility. Visit our website for more information on the DDS.

If you have an interest and passion to work with persons with developmental disabilities, please consider joining our team!

Who May Apply

For those new to California's State Service, visit 3 Steps to a California State Job. Getting a job with the State of California is now simpler than ever. Start by creating a CalCareer Account. With an account, you are able to take civil service examinations, store different versions of your application, apply for vacancies at 150 departments, track your application status and save your résumé all in one place.

How to Start

Review the job bulletins at link below to ensure that you meet the minimum qualifications listed on the job specification link, then review the applicable examination bulletin and follow the steps to take the exam. You are eligible to apply for the specific job once you have passed the exam for the classification.

How to Apply

Complete an Examination/Employment Application (STD 678) and the required documents to apply for any of the job and/or examination bulletins identified at links below. Please see the specific job and examination bulletins for more information.

Equal Opportunity Employer

The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free work place. Any applicant for state employment is expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing Civil Service, and the special trust placed in public servants.
